25X1 [Cambodia: Recent statements by Chief of State Sihanouk indicate he does not contemplate requesting arms and aircraft from Communist China in the immediate future unless he is provoked by sudden inimical acts by South Vietnam or Thailand. Reports persist, however, of a pending arms deal with Czechoslovakia, where a Cambodian mission headed by Deputy Premier Tioulong now is visiting. Sihanouk may have in mind a stand-by arrangement with Czechoslovakia or may be planning to use such arms to outfit Cambodian irregular forces, pending American reaction to Cambodia's request for stepped-up aid to the Cambodian regular forces.]

III. THE WEST

25X1 [Caribbean: Venezuelan Foreign Minister Arcaya wants the meeting of the Council of the Organization of American States, which Venezuela has requested for 6 July, to convene a meeting of foreign ministers not later than 15 July to take action against the Dominican Republic. Venezuela holds the Trujillo regime responsible for the 24 June attempt to assassinate President Betancourt, and Arcaya has told the American ambassador that if the OAS does not act firmly his government will be unable to restrain its people from direct action against the Trujillo regime. Colombian President Lleras Camargo is also intent on OAS action against Trujillo and has told the American ambassador in Bogota that, if action is taken first against Trujillo, he will then help persuade other Latin American governments to take quick action against Fidel Castro.]

LATE ITEM

OK *Indonesia: A group of high-ranking Indonesian army officers is reported urging Army Chief of Staff General Nasution to seize power at once in order to thwart President Sukarno's pro-Communist activities. According to a headquarters staff officer, these officers have informed Nasution that unless he supports them they will take steps without him against the president. The informant stressed that this action might occur at any moment. Sukarno is maneuvering to replace several officers who have been particularly active against the Communists, and is said to have ordered Nasution to discontinue all anti-Communist activity. Army leadership has been gravely concerned for months over Sukarno's continued concessions to the Communists.

Reports Persist of Cambodian-Czech Arms Deal

Recent criticism by Cambodian Chief of State Sihanouk of the alleged imbalance between American military aid to Cambodia and that given South Vietnam, Thailand, and Laos indicates that, unless provoked by inimical acts by these neighboring states, he is not contemplating requesting a major arms program from the Communist bloc in the immediate future. Sihanouk is quoted by a correspondent of the London Observer as saying he might be forced to accept proffered bloc arms--including jet aircraft--unless the United States "radically revises" its anti-Communist military aid policy in Southeast Asia by the year's end. Previously, he had indicated he would prefer an increase in American military aid to Cambodia combined with a decrease of such aid to the neighboring states.

[Reports persist, however, of a pending arms deal with Czechoslovakia, where a Cambodian mission headed by Deputy Premier and Minister of Plans Nhiek Tioulong is visiting. The ordnance chief of the Cambodian Defense Ministry is with Tioulong.]

[Sihanouk may be contemplating a stand-by arrangement with Czechoslovakia, pending American reaction to Cambodia's request for more and newer arms for the Cambodian armed forces. He may calculate that Czech arms, procured either on a purchase or grant basis, could be used to outfit Cambodian irregular forces without jeopardizing America's military aid program for the regular troops. Sihanouk is pushing the expansion of irregular forces, particularly the Cambodian Socialist Youth commandos, on the grounds that threatened external attacks can best be met by village-level troops trained in guerrilla tactics.]

Venezuela and Colombia Want Early OAS Action Against The Dominican Republic

25X1

[Venezuelan Foreign Minister Arcaya wants the meeting of the Council of the Organization of American States, which Venezuela has requested for 6 July, to convene a meeting of foreign ministers as early as possible but not later than 15 July to take action against the Dominican Republic. Venezuela holds the Trujillo regime responsible for the 24 June attempt to assassinate President Betancourt and seeks anti-Dominican action by OAS members under Article 8 of the Rio Pact for the mutual defense of the 21 American republics. Article 8 permits measures ranging from recall of chiefs of mission to the use of armed force.]

[When informing the US ambassador on 30 June of Venezuela's intent to call for OAS action, Arcaya said that, if the OAS does not act quickly and firmly in this situation, the Venezuelan Government will be unable to restrain its people from direct action, since both public opinion and the military favor an attack, even without a declaration of war.]

[Colombian President Lleras Camargo is also intent on OAS action against Trujillo and told the American ambassador in Bogota on 29 June that, if action is taken first against Trujillo, he will then help persuade other Latin American governments to take quick action]

(against Fidel Castro. Lleras commented that most South American governments agree with him that Castro is a greater threat than Trujillo. Lleras is nevertheless a firm backer of Betancourt's position that the OAS must resolve the Trujillo problem first and believes that this priority is essential to the stability of the Betancourt regime. Lleras urged that the OAS act at least within a month on Trujillo and follow within 15 days with consideration of the Cuban situation.
